THE COURT REPORT

David Miller, 16, of the 3100 block of Buena Vista Terrace, SE, Washington, D.C., was on September 26, 2005 in D.C. Superior Court before the Honorable Hiram Puig-Lugo to 24 months of incarceration for robbing two women in Adams Morgan on April 30, 2005. Miller, who was charged as an adult in this matter, pled guilty to the charge of robbery on June 8, 2005. (Case No. F-2442-05; PSA 303)

According to the proceedings in court, in the early morning hours of April 30, 2005, the defendant approached two young women who were walking in the 2200 block of Champlain Street, NW. He displayed a handgun, and demanded the women surrender their purses. The women complied, and the defendant walked away. The women walked to a nearby nightclub, and called 911 to report the robbery.

Minutes later, a uniformed MPD police officer spotted the defendant about two blocks from the robbery scene, and observed what appeared to be a handgun tucked in the waistband of his pants. The officer drew his service weapon and ordered the defendant to stop. The defendant began to flee on foot.

After a foot chase, the officer, with the assistance of other MPD officers, stopped the defendant near the intersection of Fifteenth and W Streets, NW. During the chase, the officers learned of the robbery in the 2200 block of Champlain Street. Both women subsequently identified the defendant as the person who robbed them.

A cell phone belonging to one of the two women, which had been in her purse, was recovered from the defendant. The women's purses themselves and most of their contents were recovered in a nearby alley. The weapon likely used in the robbery, a pellet gun, was recovered in a park that the defendant ran through during his flight from police.

Darren M. Way, 31, of Gaithersburg, MD, was indicted September 27, 2005 by a Superior Court grand jury on four (4) counts of Second Degree Sexual Abuse. At the time of the incident for which he was charged, Way had been a Metro Transit Police Officer for just over two years. His employment was terminated on August 5, 2005. Way is scheduled to be arraigned on October 7, 2005, before D.C. Superior Court Judge Judith E. Retchin. If convicted of the charges, the defendant faces a maximum of 20 years in prison. (Case No. F-4568-05; PSA 306)

The indictment is based upon an incident that began on June 26, 2005, when the defendant is alleged to have called the victim, an escort/prostitute who was staying at the Gallery Inn at 1850 Florida Avenue, NW, and made an appointment to see her. Way, who was on duty, arrived at approximately 2:00 a.m. the next morning in full uniform and told the victim that he wanted to go up to her room. Despite the victim's repeated refusals, the defendant insisted and the victim, afraid that she would be arrested, finally relented. Once in the room, the defendant performed various sex acts on the victim against her will. Before the defendant left, the victim gained control of the defendant's Metro Transit keys, which she later turned over to law enforcement authorities.

An indictment is merely a formal charge that a defendant has committed a criminal violation. All defendants are presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.

Lorenzo Harris, 19, of the 2100 block of Fourth Street, NW, Washington, D.C., and Gregory Jackson, 19, of the 1000 block of K Street, SE, Washington, D.C., were sentenced on September 29, 2005 in D.C. Superior Court for the charge of armed robbery. Harris was sentenced by the Honorable Hiram E. Puig-Lugo to 72 months of incarceration for armed robbery, and ten concurrent months for carrying a dangerous weapon, and was ordered to pay restitution in the amount of $500 for the victim's losses. Jackson was sentenced under the Youth Act to 42 months of incarceration for armed robbery and one consecutive month for an escape from a halfway house. (Case No. F-1185-05; PSA 501)

According to the government's evidence and defendants' plea, on Tuesday, March 1, 2005, before noon, Lorenzo Harris saw a woman on her way to a Metro stop in Southeast Washington, D.C. Harris was driving his mother's car, a red Chevy Cavalier. Knowing the woman from elementary school and the neighborhood where he grew up, Harris gave her a ride to Harris Teeter at Pentagon Row, Virginia, her place of employment, where she was going to cash a paycheck. After she cashed her check, Harris told her that he needed to pick up a friend. While driving back from Virginia, Harris drove them to 11th and K Streets, SE, Washington, D.C., parked and went inside an apartment building. The woman remained in the car. A few minutes later, Harris came out of the apartment building with Gregory Jackson. Planning to rob the victim, Harris stated that he was taking Jackson to pick up his car in Northwest Washington, D.C.

Once in the alley behind 61 Bryant Street, NW, Harris stopped the car. Inside the vehicle, Jackson took out a black revolver gun and pointed it at the woman's head, telling her to give him all her stuff. In shock, the woman looked at Harris and asked how he could let this happen. Harris then told the woman to give them everything she had. The defendants took the woman's gold jewelry, her purse containing her identification, checks, personal papers and approximately $150. Harris next ordered the woman to get out of the car, which she did. While the car drove away, the woman memorized the license plate number.

MPD arrived at the scene, and a lookout was broadcast around 1:30 p.m. Shortly after 2 p.m., MPD officers communicated that they had located a vehicle that matched the description in the lookout in the 2100 block of Fourth Street, NW. The officers learned that the red Chevy Cavalier belonged to a person who lived at the address in that block and was owned by a person with the last name Harris. The officers created a perimeter around the house and detained the defendants as they were exiting. The victim was brought to that location. She separately identified the defendants as the two men who robbed her at gunpoint in a show-up identification procedure, despite the defendants having changed their clothes. The defendants were arrested at approximately 2:40 p.m.

MPD obtained a search warrant for Harris' residence. MPD officers recovered clothing and a black, revolver style air gun that matched the description given by the victim. MPD also recovered the contents of the victim's stolen purse, including her identification, social security card; checkbook and W-2 form for this most recent year's taxes. The police found $125 shoved under the cushion of the living room sofa. Lastly, MPD recovered a gold link bracelet belonging to the woman from Harris' red Chevy convertible.

Roland Thomas, 39, of the 2200 block of U Place, SE, Washington, D.C., was sentenced on September 30, 2005, in D.C. Superior Court, before the Honorable Erik P. Christian, pursuant to his plea of guilty on July 6, 2005, to robbery of a $25,000 lottery ticket from its lawful owner. Judge Christian sentenced the defendant to 60 months of incarceration to be followed by three years of supervised release. (Case No. F-5526-04; PSA 305)

The government's evidence showed that on September 1, 2004, at approximately 1:00 p.m., the complainant, a 46-year-old mentally challenged man, left his home and walked a couple of blocks to a convenience store at 1101 H Street, NE, where he purchased several "scratch-off" lottery tickets. He won $25,000, and began announcing his good fortune to others inside the store, including the defendant, whom he had never met. As the store manager was validating the winning ticket and explaining to the complainant that he needed to take it to the D.C. Lottery Board offices located at 14th and U Streets, NW, to receive his check, the defendant offered the man a ride to the Lottery Board. He also offered to help him to cash in his winning ticket. The complainant said no to both, then left the store and began to walk home to tell his mother about what had happened. The entire sequence in the store was captured on the store's video surveillance camera.

In order to get home, the complainant decided to cut through an alley in the 700 block of 10th Street, NE. When he emerged from the alley, the defendant pulled up in a dark-colored SUV, jumped out, approached the complainant, then punched him in the chest and snatched the winning lottery ticket from his hand.

Immediately after the robbery, the complainant went home and told his mother about all that had happened to him, and she called the police. Police immediately contacted the D.C. Lottery Board, who agreed to contact them if anyone attempted to cash the complainant's ticket. Within a short time, the defendant's wife and neighbor arrived at the Lottery Board's offices and attempted to cash the ticket. As police detained them, the defendant was located outside the building, waiting for his wife and neighbor to emerge with the stolen proceeds. Following the defendant's arrest, the complainant was reunited with his $25,000 ticket, which he then cashed.

Robert S. Frazier, 23, of Suitland, Maryland, was sentenced on Tuesday, October 4, 2005, for kidnapping while armed with a firearm today before the Honorable Wendell P. Gardner, Jr., of the Superior Court of the District of Columbia. The defendant received ten years of incarceration, five of it mandatory as required by law, and five years of supervised release. The defendant had earlier pled guilty to the offense on July 26, 2005. (Case No. F-7637-04; PSA 307)

According to the government's factual proffer, the offense occurred on December 9, 2004, just after approximately 12:15 in the afternoon. The location was the Mary McLeod Bethune Council House, located at 1318 Vermont Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C. The Bethune House is a museum operated by the National Park Service, and celebrates its namesake, a leader of the African-American civil rights movement during the 1930's. The kidnapping charge arose from the defendant's forced relocation and detention of several employees inside the Bethune House at gunpoint. After threatening to kill one of the employees, the defendant then left with a donation box.

Until the very morning of the crime, the defendant had been employed for several months at the Bethune House as a custodial worker. During the late morning of December 9, 2004, the defendant was heard loudly proclaiming that he was leaving for his lunch break as he left the Bethune House. At about 12:15 p.m., he returned and rang the front buzzer. An employee came to the door and let the defendant in, before noticing that he was wearing a Halloween mask (as well as other outer clothing, apparently over his uniform). The defendant brandished a gun, and forced the employee up the stairs. Upstairs, he then confronted a second female employee, who recognized him immediately and thought he was horsing around -- until he threatened to shoot her and she saw that he had a gun. The defendant then forced both women upstairs and ordered them to lay down face-first on the floor, having threatened to shoot them if they did not cooperate.

The defendant then forced a third female employee into the hall. A fourth female employee heard the third employee yelling, and peeked outside her office to see a masked man standing there. She quickly shut her door and locked it. Unsuccessful in getting to the fourth employee's office through an adjacent door, the defendant grabbed the third employee's head by her hair and began pulling her head up and down in apparent frustration, with enough force to create a bald spot. The defendant then screamed that he would kill the third employee if the door was not opened, all the while pointing a gun at the third employee's head. Behind the locked door was a safe, which was locked and had actually not been in use for years. The fourth employee inside that room, who was terrified, did not open the door.

Eventually the defendant let go of the third employee and, after unsuccessfully frisking the pockets of one of the employees still lying on the floor, ran downstairs. He grabbed a plastic donation box with $25 inside it from the ground floor before leaving the Bethune House. A nearby witness saw a masked man enter the alley with a plastic box, and then saw a man leave the alley without the mask and box and approach a green station wagon, which then left the scene.

In the meantime, Bethune House employees called the police. The employees had recognized the defendant by his voice and knew it was him, notwithstanding the mask and his periodic attempts to disguise his voice. Several were also familiar with his height and build, his voice, and his manner. They identified the defendant by name as soon as the United States Park Police arrived. The police searched the alley and found a number of items, including the donation box from the Bethune House with currency still inside of it. They also found a mask and a cell phone, as well as clothing similar to the suspect's outer clothing as described by the Bethune House employees.

At about 1:45 p.m., as the police were processing the Bethune House scene, the defendant returned to the Bethune House, apparently feigning a return from his lunch break. He drove up to the Bethune House in a green station wagon along with his girlfriend. Having already been identified by name, he was quickly spotted and arrested. His girlfriend subsequently identified some of the items that were found in the alley, including the cell phone, which was hers, and the Halloween mask, which looked like one her son had used. The witness who had seen the man leaving the alley also confirmed that the defendant's car looked like the green station wagon that had earlier been seen leaving the scene.

After being taken to the Park Police station, the defendant waived his rights and gave a statement. After initially denying any involvement, he eventually acknowledged his culpability. The defendant also told police that he had left the gun in a bag, which he delivered, to an intermediary. Subsequent investigation revealed that a relative of the defendant claimed to have sold the gun.

Jose Rosales, 28, originally from El Salvador and most recently from Washington, D.C., was sentenced on October 5, 2005 before the Honorable Wendell P. Gardner, Jr. of the Superior Court of the District of Columbia to two years of incarceration, to be followed by three years of supervised release for striking a person with his vehicle while intoxicated. The defendant pled guilty to Aggravated Assault on July 28, 2005. (Case No. F-03405-05; PSA 304)

According to the government's factual proffer, the offense occurred on June 16, 2005, at approximately 3:05 p.m. in the rear of 1417 Belmont Street, NW, Washington, D.C. The event happened in an alleyway at that location during daylight hours. The complainant and a colleague were trimming bushes in the rear alley when the colleague heard the sound of squealing tires and breaks. He looked up to see that the complainant was attempting to jump out of the way of an oncoming car, being driven by the defendant, Jose R. Rosales. The complainant was unsuccessful, and the car smashed into the complainant. At the location of the collision, the width of the alleyway was approximately two car-widths, and there were no other cars or obstructions in the alleyway.

The defendant then backed away in the car and stopped a building's-width away. The defendant got out of the car and looked at the complainant, and then got back into his car as if to drive away. At that point, the colleague walked up to the defendant and told him he was not going anywhere, and that he needed to stay on the scene. The defendant then got out of his car and walked away, heading south towards Belmont Street. The colleague stopped the defendant, and the defendant was directly turned over to police when officers arrived on the scene.

The complainant suffered injuries to his leg, which appeared to be broken in several places, with bone protruding from the skin. The complainant was also bleeding and screaming in intense pain. The complainant underwent surgery, and doctors required that his leg remain immobile for approximately six weeks.

The defendant was, and readily appeared, intoxicated. He was observed to have a strong odor of alcohol on his breath, and had difficulty standing and walking without assistance. In addition, he was slurring his words to such an extent that the Metropolitan Police Officer who was on the scene could not understand most of what the defendant was attempting to say in Spanish, even though the officer was fluent in Spanish. At the station, police conducted alcohol tests, and determined that at 5:01 p.m., the defendant had a blood alcohol level of .26, and at 5:15 p.m., a level of .24. Both of these levels were well above the legal limit of .08 that is applicable in the District of Columbia, and were measured about two hours after the incident. The defendant was also operating the car without a valid driver's license.

Melvin Howard, Jr., 30, of the 500 block of Quackenboss Street, NW, Washington, D.C., was sentenced on October 14, 2005 before the Honorable Wendell P. Gardner, Jr. to a mandatory minimum of 15 years in prison for Armed Carjacking, Possession of a Firearm during a Crime of Violence, Carrying a Pistol without a License, Unregistered Firearm, Unlawful Possession of Ammunition, and Unauthorized Use of a Vehicle. A Superior Court jury found the defendant guilty of the charges on August 9, 2005. (Case No. F-5305-03; PSA 302)

According to the evidence presented at trial, the offense occurred on August 30, 2003, at approximately 8:42 p.m. at a gas station located at 2830 Sherman Avenue, NW, at the southwest corner of Sherman Avenue and Harvard Street, NW, Washington, D.C. The complainant dropped her female friend off across the street, and then pulled into the gas station to buy gas and other items. The complainant noticed the defendant holding a bottle of Windex, apparently offering to wash her car windows, and nodded assent before going inside the gas station store. At that point, the defendant was wearing a hat and sunglasses. Upon paying for gas and other items, the complainant came back outside. The defendant then began spraying her with the Windex, and chased her when she began to run away. The defendant then stopped the complainant and demanded that she give up her car keys, pulling out a pistol from his waistband. The complainant begged him not to hurt her, and her keys fell to the ground. The defendant then picked up the keys and ran to the car and began to drive off at a high rate of speed.

In the meantime, the complainant's friend was screaming, and noticed Officer Jose Casiano, who happened to be driving by in his squad car. The friend flagged down the officer, who observed the complainant's car being driven away, and Officer Casiano gave chase. During the chase, the defendant took a turn down a road and happened to pass other officers who were just wrapping up an unrelated roadblock. Eventually the defendant crashed the complainant's car into a fence, and he bailed out, dropping a hat and sunglasses as he did so. Officer Casiano pursued the defendant on foot, and lost sight of him once the defendant rounded a corner. Within four minutes, however, other officers had arrived to secure the area.

Officer Casiano retraced his steps, and found the defendant quietly crouched behind some trashcans, with his jacket pulled over his head. The defendant was positively identified by Officer Casiano, the complainant, and the complainant's friend – within 14 minutes of the carjacking – and the complainant and friend noted that the defendant appeared the same except for the absence of his sunglasses and a hat. Mobile Crime later recovered a 9-mm pistol loaded with 16 rounds of ammunition from between the passenger seat and the center console of the stolen vehicle.

Guy Bordes Agnant, 29, of Lanham, Maryland, pled guilty on October 18, 2005 in District of Columbia Superior Court before the Honorable Robert I. Richter to one count of Involuntary Manslaughter in connection with a fatal high speed car crash that took the life of John C. Johnson, Jr. on November 30, 2004. At the time of the collision, Mr. Johnson, a financial planner, was on his way to help his sister who had locked her keys in her car at her place of employment. The defendant's vehicle was equipped with a "black box," which indicated that the defendant's car was going 90 miles per hour seconds before colliding with Mr. Johnson's car. Agnant's sentencing is scheduled for January 5, 2006. He faces up to 30 years in prison. (Case No. F-7422-04; PSA 302)

According to the government's evidence, on November 30, 2004, at approximately 12:55 a.m., a driver of a vehicle was stopped at a red signal eastbound on Irving Street at the intersection with Park Place. He was second in line at the signal behind a 2004 Mercury Grand Marquis. As the light cycled to green for traffic on Irving Street, the Mercury moved into the intersection when a light brown colored Buick passed the red signal at a high rate of speed and struck the Mercury broadside on the driver's side. The force of the impact caused the Mercury to be pushed laterally in a southerly direction on Park Place where it struck and mounted the southeast curb, entered a grassy median, continued south on the median and came to a final rest approximately 143 feet from the point of impact. After impact, the Buick continued to travel south in the 3000 block of Park Place leaving lateral scuff marks, coming to a final rest approximately 129 feet from the point of impact. There were no markings indicating any attempts by the Buick to brake prior to impact.

Seconds after the cars came to a final stop, the driver behind the Mercury observed the defendant crawl out of the driver's side of the Buick and fall to the ground several times. The driver of the Buick was later identified as Guy Bordes Agnant. Agnant attempted to flee the scene by flagging down a taxi, but was thwarted by the intervention of the driver behind the Mercury. Based on observation by investigators from the Major Crash investigation Unit, the defendant exhibited the odor of alcoholic coming from person and breath and appeared to be under the influence of alcoholic a short time after the actual crash. Blood was taken and the defendant had a B.A.C. of .065. Accident reconstruction and subsequent testing on the "black box" inside the Buick concluded that Agnant was traveling at approximately 90 miles per hour at the time of impact.

The driver of the Mercury was identified through his driver's license as John C. Johnson, Jr. Johnson had to be extricated from his vehicle by District of Columbia Fire Department and EMS units. He was transported to Washington Hospital Center, Medstar Unit and admitted in critical condition. He was pronounced dead from his injuries at 1:37 a.m. by Dr. Golocovsky of the Medstar staff.

It was later learned that Agnant had fled a traffic stop by Metropolitan Police about ten minutes before the fatal crash. Agnant had two previous impaired driving convictions.

Superior Court Chief Judge Rufus King III sentenced Allen Logan, 34, formerly, of the 1100 block of Montello Avenue, NE, Washington, D.C., to life imprisonment plus 80 years of incarceration for the brutal slayings of 80-year-old Simona Druyard and 20-month-old Mikea Washington, and the attack of the toddler's father, all of the 1400 block of Spring Road, NW, Washington, D.C. On July 26, 2005, Logan was found guilty of multiple charges, including two counts of First-Degree Felony Murder While Armed, Aggravated Assault, and First-Degree Burglary While Armed. (Case No. F-385-02; PSA 302)

According to trial testimony, the defendant slashed the throats of all three of his victims, in the late afternoon of June 14, 2002, after he and the toddler's father had a dispute over a business venture. Only the father survived the assault.

Joseph S. Mitchell, age 20, was sentenced by the Honorable Judge Wendell P. Gardner, Jr., D.C. Superior Court, to approximately 13 years in prison for his role in two armed robberies. (Case Nos. F-5045-04 & F-5724-04; PSAs 302 & 306)

In the first case, which occurred on August 11, 2004, near the intersection of Holmead and Otis Places, N.W. the defendant beat the male victim with the handle of a pellet gun and snatched a necklace from him. In the second case, the defendant and two other individuals robbed a group of four men at gunpoint, on September 11, 2004, in the 1600 block of R Street N.W. Mitchell's two accomplices in the latter robbery were prosecuted separately and received prison sentences of five years each for their respective roles.

DISTRICT COURT CASES

Anthony M. Stewart, 34, of Suitland, Maryland, was sentenced on September 26, 2005, to 18 months in prison by United States District Judge Paul L. Friedman on Stewart's prior guilty plea to aiding and abetting an honest services wire fraud offense. The charge relates to Stewart providing fraudulent documents to his parole officer and others, which falsely represented his employment with the Department of Agriculture. Stewart's sister, Theresa Stewart Freeman, was employed with the United States Department of Agriculture at the time.

According to the government's evidence presented at the plea hearing and agreed to by Stewart, a part of Ms. Freeman's employment duties was to verify the employment of personnel at the Department of Agriculture in response to inquiries from outside the Department. At all relevant times, Stewart was not employed. He was, however, on parole for a conviction in Superior Court in Washington, D.C., and a condition of his parole was that he maintain employment. If he failed to do so, his parole potentially could be revoked and he could be incarcerated for not complying with his terms of parole.

In May of 2003, Stewart stopped reporting to his parole officer. The parole officer then contacted Ms. Freeman, as Stewart's purported supervisor, in an attempt to locate him. At that time, Ms. Freeman fraudulently represented to the parole officer that Stewart was on leave without pay from the Department.

This fraud scheme came to light on June 26, 2003, when Metropolitan Police Department detectives were trying to locate Stewart to arrest him on a warrant in an unrelated matter. In the process of trying to locate Stewart, the police determined that he had submitted pay stubs to his parole officer showing that he was working at the Department of Agriculture. When the police contacted the Department of Agriculture about these pay stubs, they found that the pay stubs were fraudulent.

Stewart's sister, Ms. Freeman, previously pled guilty to a honest services wire fraud charge in this matter and was sentenced by Judge Friedman to three years of probation, which included a requirement that she perform 100 hours of community service. Ms. Freeman resigned from her employment with the Department of Agriculture in January of 2004.

Wyatt Wood, 42, of the 1200 block of Florida Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C., was sentenced on October 17, 2005, in U.S. District Court by Chief Judge Thomas F. Hogan to a term of 188 months in prison following his earlier guilty plea to federal drug trafficking charges. On April 19, 2005, Wood pled guilty to Conspiracy to Distribute and Unlawful Possession with Intent to Distribute 50 grams or more of Methamphetamine, also known as "Ice," Conspiracy to Distribute and Unlawful Possession with Intent to Distribute Five

Kilograms or More of Cocaine, and Conspiracy to Distribute and Unlawful Possession with Intent to Distribute a detectable amount of 3,4-Methylenedioxy Methamphetamine, also known as “Ecstasy.”

The evidence proffered by the government at the sentencing hearing established that, between January 1999 and November 22, 2004 (the date of Wood’s arrest), Woods utilized several sources to supply him with large quantities of Ice, cocaine, Ecstasy and other designer drugs. Additionally, Wood employed a number of individuals to distribute the designer drugs as well. Wood was held responsible for the distribution of 60 kilograms of Ice, 5.5 kilograms of cocaine, and 4 kilograms of Ecstasy. He additionally possessed with the intent to distribute large quantities of Ketamine, Marijuana, Clonazepam, d-Pseudoephedrine hydrochloride and Gamma Butyrolactone, (GBL) and Gamma Hydroxybutyrate (GHB).

Wood’s sentencing represents the culmination of a four-year joint effort by a task force, which resulted in the successful prosecution of more than 30 defendants to whom Wood supplied designer drugs. Moreover, this task force had seized more than one million dollars in assets from Wood. The joint investigation, initially designated as “Operation Tina Town,” was a joint DEA, MPD and Arlington County effort that became part of a larger national initiative lead by the DEA, and was referred to as “Operation Wildfire.” Operation Wildfire was a nationally coordinated law enforcement initiative designed to (1) target all levels of the methamphetamine manufacturing and distribution chain in the United States and (2) continue the fight against the spread of methamphetamine. The unprecedented law enforcement effort involved over 200 U.S. cities and resulted in the arrest of 427 individuals.

Antonio C. Bras, 62, of Olney, Maryland, was sentenced on October 20, 2005, in U.S. District Court before the Honorable Colleen Kollar Kotelly to a 37-month term of imprisonment for conspiring to commit bribery and federal highway fraud in connection with Bras’s role in distributing cash bribes to District of Columbia Department of Public Works officials in exchange for the DPW officials agreeing to accept inflated job tickets for asphalt materials that were never provided to the District. U.S. District Judge Kollar Kotelly also fined BRAS $7,500. Bras entered his guilty plea in 2003 following the government’s presentation of evidence at trial before a federal jury. This investigation – started in 1997 and known as “Operation Hotmix” – resulted in the criminal conviction of three construction companies and twelve individuals including nine District of Columbia DPW employees.

Fort Myer Construction Corporation (“FMCC”) was a Virginia corporation, which engaged in road construction projects in Washington and elsewhere. FMCC entered into contracts and subcontracts with other prime contractors with the District of Columbia Department of Public Works (“DPW”) and others to repair and resurface roads. Pursuant to these contracts and subcontracts, FMCC agreed to charge DPW and others for labor and material actually used in the performance of its contracts. Antonio C. Bras was employed by defendant FMCC as an asphalt superintendent and was a management official of FMCC. FMCC’s Asphalt Division was responsible for, among other things, oversight of FMCC’s obligation to deliver the proper amounts of asphalt to its crews at DPW job sites. (FMCC entered a separate guilty plea in March 2003, before Judge Kotelly to conspiracy to bribe DPW officials. FMCC was fined $300,000, ordered to pay $300,000 in restitution, and entered into a separate $300,000 civil settlement.)

Wyatt Wood, 42, of the 1200 block of Florida Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C., was sentenced on October 17, 2005, in U.S. District Court by Chief Judge Thomas F. Hogan to a term of 188 months in prison following his earlier guilty plea to federal drug trafficking charges. On April 19, 2005, Wood pled guilty to Conspiracy to Distribute and Unlawful Possession with Intent to Distribute 50 grams or more of Methamphetamine, also known as “Ice,” Conspiracy to Distribute and Unlawful Possession with Intent to Distribute Five Kilograms or More of Cocaine, and Conspiracy to Distribute and Unlawful Possession with Intent to Distribute a detectable amount of 3,4-Methylenedioxy Methamphetamine, also known as “Ecstasy.”

He additionally possessed with the intent to distribute large quantities of Ketamine, Marijuana, Clonazepam, d-Pseudoephedrine hydrochloride and Gamma Butyrolactone, (GBL) and Gamma Hydroxybutyrate (GHB).

David Johnson, 35, of the 4900 block of Fort Totten Drive, NE, a former employee of the D.C. Public School’s Transportation Division, pled guilty on October 12, 2005, in U.S. District Court to operating a bribery scheme with a D.C. government clerk. In pleading guilty, Johnson acknowledged that he paid money to Tonette Cooks, a teller formerly employed by the D.C. Office of Finance and Treasury (“OFT”) and working for the D.C. Bureau of Traffic Adjudication, in exchange for Cooks falsely recording that various automobile tickets and fines had been paid in full. Cooks, 30, formerly of the 4800 block of Fort Totten Drive, NE, pled guilty to bribery on October 21, 2003. Both Cooks and Johnson are now pending sentencing before United States District Judge Gladys Kessler.

As part of his plea, Johnson admitted that he operated as a “middleman,” collecting numerous “customers” and their bribe money, and providing Cooks with the tickets or fines to be fixed and delivering to her a portion of the bribe money. A second “middleman” with whom Cooks worked, Sherry McKnight, 41, formerly of the 3000 block of Stanton Road, SE, pled guilty on October 17, 2003, to participating with Cooks in the bribery scheme. On April 28, 2004, McKnight was sentenced to 46 months of incarceration. Johnson admitted that his actions resulted in a loss amount of over $30,000.

Bruce A. Schiffer, 34, of Washington, D.C., pled guilty on October 14, 2005, in Federal District Court to one count each of using his computer to advertise, transport, receive and possess child pornography. The sentencing date will be February 9, 2006, before the Honorable Paul L. Friedman.

During the plea hearing, Schiffer admitted to charges contained in an indictment handed down on June 9, 2005. The indictment alleged that Schiffer advertised, transported, received and possessed the child pornography that forms the basis for the charges. By operating his personal computer as a file server, Schiffer allowed selected files to be downloaded and uploaded by the public from and to his computer respectively. He also advertised on specified Internet relay chat (IRC) channels a willingness to receive or distribute files. Schiffer advertised his file server on the "100%preteenboysexcpics" IRC channel, making available to the public a collection of approximately 11,000 image and movie files of child pornography and erotic depictions of children over the course of about five months beginning on or about Sept. 1, 2004 and continuing until on or about Jan.14, 2005. Among the items seized from Schiffer's bedroom pursuant to a search warrant, were several computers; a large quantity of storage media, including videotapes, CDs, DVDs and floppy disks, a clown suit; and two boxes of catalogued correspondence between Schiffer and roughly 160 prison inmates, the vast majority of whom had either sexually assaulted or murdered children.
